JUDGE RULES ON LIQUOR SALES DAILY AND SUNDAY

Superior Court Judge Upholds Opinion of Judge Gordon in Philadelphia

OF INTEREST HERE

Licensees Can Sell Only Between 8 A. M. and 2 A. M. Daily

A decision of extreme interest here was handed down yesterday in an opinion written by Judge William M. Parker of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania in which it was decreed that chartered clubs may not sell liquor on Sundays and that licensees other than clubs may sell liquor only after 8 a. m., of any week-day, and until 2 a. m., of the following week-day and shall not be sold on Sunday or any day on which a general, municipal, special or primary election is being held.

The opinion it was written in the case of an appeal from the action of Judge James Gay Gordon, Jr., Philadelphia, in Quarter Sessions Court, Philadelphia, revoking the liquor license of the West Philadelphia Fidelio Mannerchor, which was specifically charged with selling liquor to members and guests on Sundays.

The Penn Athletic Club intervened as a party defendant in taking the appeal.

Judge Parker ruled specifically on that portion of the State Liquor Control act, which says:

"Liquor may be sold by licensees, other than clubs, only after 8 o'clock a. m. of any week-day, and until 2 o'clock a. m. of the following week-day, and shall not be sold on Sunday or any day on which a general, municipal, special or primary election is being held."

He ruled that the phrase "other than clubs" applies only to the week-day sale of liquor.

The appellants had argued that the wording of the passage was ambiguous, and that in case of legal ambiguity a Court is duty-bound not to inflict penalty.

Judge Parker asserted that his interpretation of the passage was also based on the general intent of the State liquor control act. He asserted that during debate preceding passage of the bill a member of the House of Representatives had sought to include the phrase "other than clubs" in the portion of the paragraph relating to Sunday sales, arguing:

"As a lawyer I say that clubs will not be permitted to sell on Sunday. They will be permitted to distribute liquor among their members. Clubs never sold liquor on Sunday under the laws of Pennsylvania. When a club has liquor in its treasury or possession all of that liquor belongs to the entire membership and a man cannot buy that of which he is a part owner, and there is a Supreme Court case to that effect."

Both were rushed to the Bryn Mawr Hospital where Miss Sturges was found to have died of a fractured skull. Brook escaped with cuts and bruises. ## UTILITY BILLS TOO HIGH, STATES COMMISSION

Intends There Shall Be An Immediate Downward Revision

ISSUES A WARNING

HARRISBURG, Nov. 23—(INS)—A challenge to utility companies to reduce rates to bring "a real saving to the domestic consumers" came today from the Public Service Commission.

"Pennsylvania's utility bills are too high," the Commission declared flatly in a statement of policy.

"The Public Service Commission stands for, and intends to bring about, an immediate downward revision of present rate schedules," it warned, adding:

"Rates must be revised to a point where there will be a real saving to the domestic consumer."

The statement came on the heels of announcement of the first limits of the Commission's drive to limit utility profits to six per cent. Sixteen companies reduced rates to net a savings of almost $1,500,000 annually as a result of the drive, now in its initial stages, according to the Commission.

Citing the New York Power Authority's recent report to President Roosevelt declaring that electric rates in Northeastern United States are almost twice as high as necessary, the Commission added that its investigation of rates in other states indicated that Pennsylvania consumers were paying too high rates. A St. Louis and Cambridge, Mass., company, each with initial charges of five cents per kilowatt hour for electricity, were cited as examples of lower rates in other states.

"The Commission has been investigating rates in other states," the statement continued. "Its conclusions are that Pennsylvania is being discriminated against."

"There is no reason why the people of Pennsylvania should pay excessive charges while those in other states pay reasonable charges. Pennsylvania is penalized by high rates for the privilege of being served by the utilities. This state must have just as fair treatment as any other states."

"Electricity, gas, water and the telephone are necessities but some utilities demand luxury prices. The Commission stands for reasonable bills for the public and reasonable profits for the companies. Excessive profits mean excessive bills. The purpose of the Commission is to secure rates comparable to the lower rates prevailing in other states."

"Increased business follows rate reductions. Reduced rates result in increasing the use of the product of a quality. That means an increase in a company's income rather than a loss because of lower rates. Reasonable rates also mean satisfied patrons. That in itself is a valuable asset to any public utility. Low rates and satisfied customers have yet to wreck any concern serving the public."

Buckley Funeral To Be Held Here On Monday

The funeral of the late George W. Buckley, first assistant chief of the Bristol Consolidated Fire Department, will be held Monday afternoon at two o'clock under the direction of Molden, undertaker.

Services will be held at the late residence of the deceased, 322 Lafayette street. Relatives and friends are invited to attend and the body may be viewed Sunday evening.

Mr. Buckley had a host of friends in this vicinity. He was an active fireman for many years and was also an enthusiastic yachtsman. In fact his hobbies for many years were fire-fighting and boat building.

During his civic activity he was a member of Borough Council a number of years ago and headed the police committee.

Yesterday Burgess Clifford L. Anderson when informed of Mr. Buckley's death ordered the flag at the Municipal Building to be lowered to half staff. The indicator at fire headquarters has been draped in black.

Mr. Buckley was a member of the Elks, Trenton Moose and Anchor Yacht Club of Bristol.

U. S. NOW HAS 1500 DETECTIVES WATCHING PWA EXPENDITURES TO CHECK WASTE AND GRAFT

Keep Guard Over Every Detail of the Various Projects

TRAINED ENGINEERS

Must Watch All of the Vast Improvements Now Under Way

By Thomas N. Sandifer
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
(Copyright, 1934, I. N. S.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23—(INS)—More than 1,500 engineer-trained inspectors now are watching with peering eyes the more than a billion dollars being spent on 4,000 PWA public projects, International News Service learned today. They have the job of checking waste, inefficiency and graft. There are 53 PWA inspectors watching construction of the Chicago Sanitary District's $42,000,000 worth of sewers. There are 10 each on New York's Tri-borough bridge projects and the Midtown Hudson Tunnel, with more scheduled to be assigned as the work advances.

Between 30 and 40 such watchers will be on the scene of the North Platte, Nebraska, hydro-electric development, which covers an area of 40 miles. Other forces of trained checkers are engaged on such programs as the Philadelphia-Camden high-speed shuttle over the Delaware River bridge, the St. Paul-Minneapolis and Milwaukee sewage systems, the Eighth avenue subway in New York, and the San Francisco waterworks, or Los Angeles school repair jobs.

A huge map in the office of Howard A. Gray, in charge of the inspection division, shows where these jobs are going up, and a multitude of red dots on the maps show where PWA inspectors are checking every detail and every dollar.

One of the things these new type of detectives are looking for is "kick-backs" which unscrupulous contractors have been found to extract from some men's pay for the privilege of working. They also are on the watch for any attempts to substitute inferior materials for those called for in the contracts.

Secretary of Interior Ickes, administrator of PWA, praised the inspectors as "an effective and, from a standpoint of training and experience, the strongest inspection organization ever assembled under one bureau to supervise peace-time construction."

The lot of these inspectors has not been easy on some jobs. In Chicago, it was charged, at least one inspector was slugged by a disgruntled group.

Secretary Ickes has sent out warnings that the full power of the government is behind these men.

"They are on the job to protect the Government, the community, contractors and workers alike," he explained.

Beside these inspectors of construction, Ickes has another crew of deliverers to look into projects proposed by applicants for loans. These are now so well organized that any additions Congress authorizes to the public works funds can be dispensed speedily where they will produce results. Having benefited from experience in allotting more than $4,000,000,000 in the first effort, the Public Works Administration machine in every part of the country now is running full speed.

One of the most important factors in delaying allocation of funds in the initial program, it was recalled, were

POLICE FIND "ALCOHOL" HIDDEN IN A TRUNK

Raid Premises at 2316 Wilson Avenue and Arrest Man Of the House

IS HELD IN $500 BAIL

Police here last night raided the premises occupied by a man giving the name of Anthony Kosiar, 2316 Wilson avenue. They found a five-gallon can partly filled with alleged alcohol, a gallon glass jug also partly filled, and a bottle of coloring matter.

Kosiar was given a hearing before Justice of Peace James Guy and held in $500 bail to await the action of the court.

Chief Jones, Bucks County Detective Anthony Russo and Patrolman Pollard walked into the Kosiar house armed with a search warrant. They searched the house and asked permission to open a trunk. The answer given to the police was that the key could not be found. The police broke the lock on the trunk and there found the five-gallon can, jug and the alleged alcohol.

Kosiar made feeble resistance to his arrest and at his hearing before Justice Guy pleaded that he was selling the "liquor" at $1 per quart and that he was doing it to keep his wife and children from starving. "I've got a job to go to and will quit next week."

The police and Judge Guy were deaf to the plea and committed the prisoner.

Kosiar is a native of Poland.

Hulmeville Resident To Appeal Case To The Court

At a hearing before Justice of the Peace Leo Lynn, at Edgely, last evening, Herbert Potter, Hulmeville, was fined $20 and costs of prosecution on a charge of hunting without a license. Potter plans to appeal the case to the Bucks County courts.

The arrest was made early in November by Daniel Potter, deputy game warden, on a farm in Middletown Township.

ADVOCATES PORTRAITS OF ASSOCIATE JUSTICES

New Hope Artist Would Like To Have Such Group Also Honored

ART IN THE SCHOOLS

NEW HOPE, Nov. 23—Albert N. Rosenthal, New Hope portrait painter, is at present occupied with two projects.

The artist is interested in having pictures of associate justices of the Supreme Court painted for use in government buildings at Washington; and the second large project is the painting and reproduction from such of likenesses of famous men in history for use in public schools.

For a number of years Mr. Rosenthal has been engaged in painting the portraits of Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, both chief and associate justices. Some of these were painted from life and others were copied from authentic existing portraits.

Mr. Rosenthal is a student of history and the project appealed to him from its historic as well as the standpoint of art. It was about 28 years ago that he began work on it and in prosecuting the idea has traveled much and made a wide research into records. Forty such paintings are now completed and ten of them, including paintings of Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller and Edward D. White, are now the property of the government.

With the completion of the new Supreme Court building in Washington, adjoining the Capitol, Mr. Rosenthal is urging that the series be completed and hung in that building. This would mean that about 40 more paintings be executed. He does not wish that these should be done by himself, but rather that the paintings be commissioned to other portrait painters of the country.

It has been the custom of each Chief Justice to see that a painting of his predecessor is provided, but the associate justices have been neglected and it is Mr. Rosenthal's contention that they should be similarly honored.

When the New Hope High School was completed Mr. Rosenthal placed on its walls a series of fine paintings and etchings of famous Americans, in the belief that the portraits in themselves would contribute to the interest and knowledge of history on the part of the students. Much attention has been directed to the idea by school authorities.

Now it is Mr. Rosenthal's ambition to make available to every high school in the United States such a set of portraits, and he is preparing a master set from which may be reproduced as many copies as may be desired. Fifty such portraits are now completed and he has in mind to make about 100. Many of these will be of national interest, and so would be attractive all over the country. Others would be of interest only in the various States. In the list Mr. Rosenthal has included only one who was not an American, that being Louis Pasteur, the French chemist. Because of the great humanitarian results of his researches, the artist claims him to be an international figure.

In addition to portraits placed in the New Hope High School, Mr. Rosenthal has been testing his theories in the large sanitarium at Eaglesville, Pa. Upon visiting the institution, he found numbers of notices and admonitions printed and hung upon the walls. He asked that he might remove these and replace them with engravings of men who have won distinction by their service to American progress. This was granted, and observation of the results vindicates the opinion that such portraits have great educational value to children.

In this same institution Mr. Rosenthal's suggestion was followed that a set of the best biographies be made available to the children's voluntary use. Instructors report that the boys and girls make good use of them and by studying biography, gain the best knowledge of history. It was gratifying to him to be advised that the characters most favored by the children were Samuel F. B. Morse, Robert Fulton and Joseph Priestly, who in addition to their inventive achievements were all art pupils of Benjamin West.

Mr. Rosenthal plans to spend the winter mostly at his new studios in Philadelphia and will prosecute his educational and historic art projects largely from there. It is likely, however, that he will spend many of his week-ends at his home at Huffnagle, where he has assembled a remarkably fine collection of rare portraits and art objects from all parts of the world.

BEATS THE "RAP"

Pittsburgh, Nov. 23—Joe Rosa beat the "rap" for murder today. Sitting immobile and expressionless as the jury filed into the court after reaching a verdict long before Court reconvened this morning, Rosa heard the verdict freeing him of the charge of having participated in the slaying of Patsy Arabia, an Arnold bootlegger. He made no comment on the verdict other than being a little puzzled because his wife Geneva was not there. He said: "I guess she was at the trial." Arabia was taken for a "ride" from which there was no returning for him last May 11th. Despite his acquittal, however, Rosa was led back to his cell in the county jail to await further action against him.

UNION LEADERS SILENT

Pittsburgh, Nov. 23—While union leaders remained silent on the rejection by the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, of the counter peace proposal of the steel industry, it was learned authoritatively here today that the move does not mean that a strike is imminent or that President Roosevelt's truce has collapsed. The rejection means simply that the whole matter must be adjudicated by the National Steel Labor Relations Board which last week held hearings here on charges of intimidation and discrimination against union members. That the forces of labor and the steel masters are still at odds on the question of union recognition is apparent. What will happen when the board hands down its decision is problematical. At the present time the whole controversy simmers down to one problem—full recognition of the union and the closed shop agreement.

RACKETEER CAPTURED

Philadelphia, Nov. 23—Captured without a struggle by two detectives, George Marsh, 33-year-old racketeer, today awaited the action of Federal authorities who accuse him of being the ring-leader of the daring $17,000 registered mail robbery at Conshohocken last June. Taken into custody with Marsh was his 18-year-old bride he reputedly married to silence her as a witness. They were arrested last night in an automobile while driving through suburban Drexel Park. Stealing the march on United States postal inspectors and government agents who have been searching for Marsh for months, Captain of Philadelphia Police Joseph Malone, accompanied by a Delaware county plain clothes man, forced the racketeer's car to the side of the road and made the arrest.

PHARMACISTS FORM A COUNTY ASSOCIATION

Asa Fabian Named President and Edward T. Finegan Secretary-Treasurer

HEAR ADDRESSES

DOYLESTOWN, Nov. 23—With about ten of the twenty-three registered pharmacists in Bucks county in attendance, the Bucks County Pharmaceutical Association was organized here on Wednesday afternoon.

Officers elected included Asa Fabian, of Bristol, president; A. J. Strathie, of Newtown, vice-president; and Edward T. Finegan, of Bristol, secretary-treasurer.

Leroy Hillegas, of Quakertown, chairman; C. C. Sterner, of Perkasie; John J. Bridgeman, of this place; Raymond Acuff, of Langhorne, and Joseph Robbins, of Croydon, were appointed members of the executive committee. Members of the public relations committee, who will represent the druggists of the county at meetings of the Bucks County Public Health Association, will be composed of the executive committee.

Through the efforts of Dr. John J. Bridgeman, County Seat pharmacist, the meeting was held in the Old Fellows' building with two guest speakers. They included Daniel M. Knabb, of Allentown, president of the Lehigh Valley Druggists' Association, and E. H. Young, of Bethlehem, president of the Northampton County Association.

Mr. Knabb pointed out the fact that with 4,782 registered drug stores in Pennsylvania less than one thousand pharmacists belong to the State association. He also stressed the value of local druggists affiliating themselves with a county, state and national association.

Mr. Young deplored the fact that many druggists lack initiative to organize for their own interests. "The sore spot in the drug business is the lack of organization. As long as we are not organized we keep on being bluffed."

Dr. Bridgeman, who served as the temporary chairman, pointed out that Bucks county is one of the few counties in Pennsylvania which has not organized a pharmacists' association. It is particularly important to organize because of the proximity of large cities. The inroads made by socialized medicine also loom as a problem before the pharmacists.

He made a plea that several members be elected to represent the county pharmacists in the Bucks County Public Health Association for the benefit of public health activities.

The next meeting will be held some time in January, 1935.

Despite the fact that only ten pharmacists were present, Chairman Bridgeman was assured that at least five druggists were interested in the program but were unable to attend, many because of one-man stores.

The number and frequency as well as the time of the meetings will be determined by the president and the executive committee.

INCREASE SHOWN IN FARMERS BANK CHRISTMAS CLUB

Amount To Be Paid Out This Week Is $2,011.76 More Than Last Year

CHECKS OUT SATURDAY

37% of the 1,102 Cards Completed; Local Merchants To Benefit

A substantial increase is shown in the payments to be made by the Farmers National Bank of Bucks County, to holders of Christmas Club cards this year. Checks are to be mailed Saturday.

The amount to be distributed tops that of last year by more than $2,000, in spite of the fact that the sum this year includes no interest. Last year $30,205.24 was paid to 895 club members, while this year the 1,012 checks will reach the sum of $32,217. The increase, to be exact, is $2,011.76.

And practically all of this money will benefit local people, the majority of those holding cards being residents of Bristol and vicinity. With the cashing of the checks many hundreds of the dollars saved during the past 50 weeks will find their way into the coffers of local merchants, as necessities are purchased, and Christmas planned for. Some of the funds will be returned to the banks for safe-keeping.

The checks range from $12.50 to $250, with a few individuals saving by means of the Christmas Club of the Farmers Bank $50 during the past year.

Of the total of 1,102 cards, there were 415, or 37 per cent., completed. Many of the others had made payments for most of the 50 weeks.

The club at the Farmers Bank for 1935 has already been opened, with the first payment due Monday, December 2nd. Even at this early date it is reported that several have signed up for the new club, making use of this easy method of saving for the Yuletide needs.

Bank Teller Captures Man With $295 Check

MORRISVILLE, Nov. 23—Captured yesterday with a flying tackle by a paying teller of the Morrisville Bank as he tried to escape following an alleged attempt to pass a $295 worthless check, Albert Antosh, 32-year-old ex-convict, was in Morrisville jail last night for a hearing before Justice of the Peace Neal Nolan this morning.

Antosh, who resides in Lower Makefield Township, and has been on probation recently from Eastern Penitentiary, where he was serving a sentence on a conviction of arson, presented a check to Herman Margerum, bank teller, yesterday afternoon, for $295. Margerum invited Antosh into the rear of the bank for a conference with Raymond Johnson, vice-president. Both men questioned Antosh for a while, when he was reported to have made a break for the door.

Margerum dashed after Antosh and captured him by throwing him to the sidewalk with a well-aimed tackle. He held him until Chief of Police Cooper arrived and placed Antosh under arrest on an alleged attempt to pass a worthless check. The check was said to have been made out to a John Miller and signed with the name of Louis Smith, a resident of Lower Makefield Township. Bank officials said the signature was not that of Smith and was worthless.

Antosh, a former member of the Capitol View Fire Company of Morrisville, was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary about three years ago on an arson charge.

obsolete state laws. Virtually every state has since overhauled its legal machinery to enable it to compete for loans from the huge Federal funds characterizing the recovery effort.

This is expected to correct a situation that was admittedly unfair for southern states and certain other sections having rigid state laws limiting indebtedness of state, county and local governments.

Any contestant who misses an event may make up his targets by special arrangement with the Range Officer.
25 contestants are needed to make this indoor series a success.
Course may be fired either in Burlington or Bristol; but must be done under the supervision of an official of the club who must certify the target.
Matches will be fired upon registered targets only.
All records will be kept by Harry Federkeil and the targets will be scored by him; contestant may check same; disputes to be settled by two of club officers.
Firing will begin at 1.30 p. m. Saturday afternoons.
In case of an outside match intervening, the entire event will be fired the succeeding week, except where the match events might coincide with the event scheduled for that day.
